

Problems of Secondary Education in India

BY:-MRS.RINKI KUMARI
DEPTT.OF EDUCATION
MMHA&PU,PATNA

What are the different types of Challenges to Secondary Education in India?

- ❑ Inadequate Curriculum
- ❑ Dominated by College requirement
- ❑ Dominated by the examination system
- ❑ Lack of Infrastructure in Government Schools
- ❑ Teachers' absence in the Government schools
- ❑ Very little use is made of ICT

Some Measures to Improving quality of Secondary Education

- ❑ Provision of Adequate facilities in State Managed Schools
- ❑ Liberal Scholarships
- ❑ Curriculum reforms
- ❑ Strengthening Boards of Secondary Education
- ❑ Dynamic and Progressive Methods of Teaching
- ❑ Evaluation System
- ❑ Human and Physical resources
- ❑ More central and Navodaya Schools
- ❑ Problem solving Methods of Teaching
- ❑ Development of Moral Values
- ❑ Co-education at secondary stage

...Continued with previous.

- ❑ School Discipline and Classroom Discipline
- ❑ Encouraging students to use library
- ❑ Improvement of Co-Curricular Activities