

Problems of Women education in rural areas

3rd semester/paper-303

By:-

Mrs.RINKI KUMARI

DEPTT.OF EDUCATION

MMHA&PU, PATNA

Introduction to rural areas

Rural areas are separately settled places away from the influence of large cities and towns.

Such areas are distinct from more intensively settled urban and sub-urban areas, and also from unsettled lands or wilderness, such as forest.

Rural areas can have an agricultural character, though many rural areas are characterized by an economy based on cottage industry, mining, oil and gas exploration, or tourism.

Life of rural women

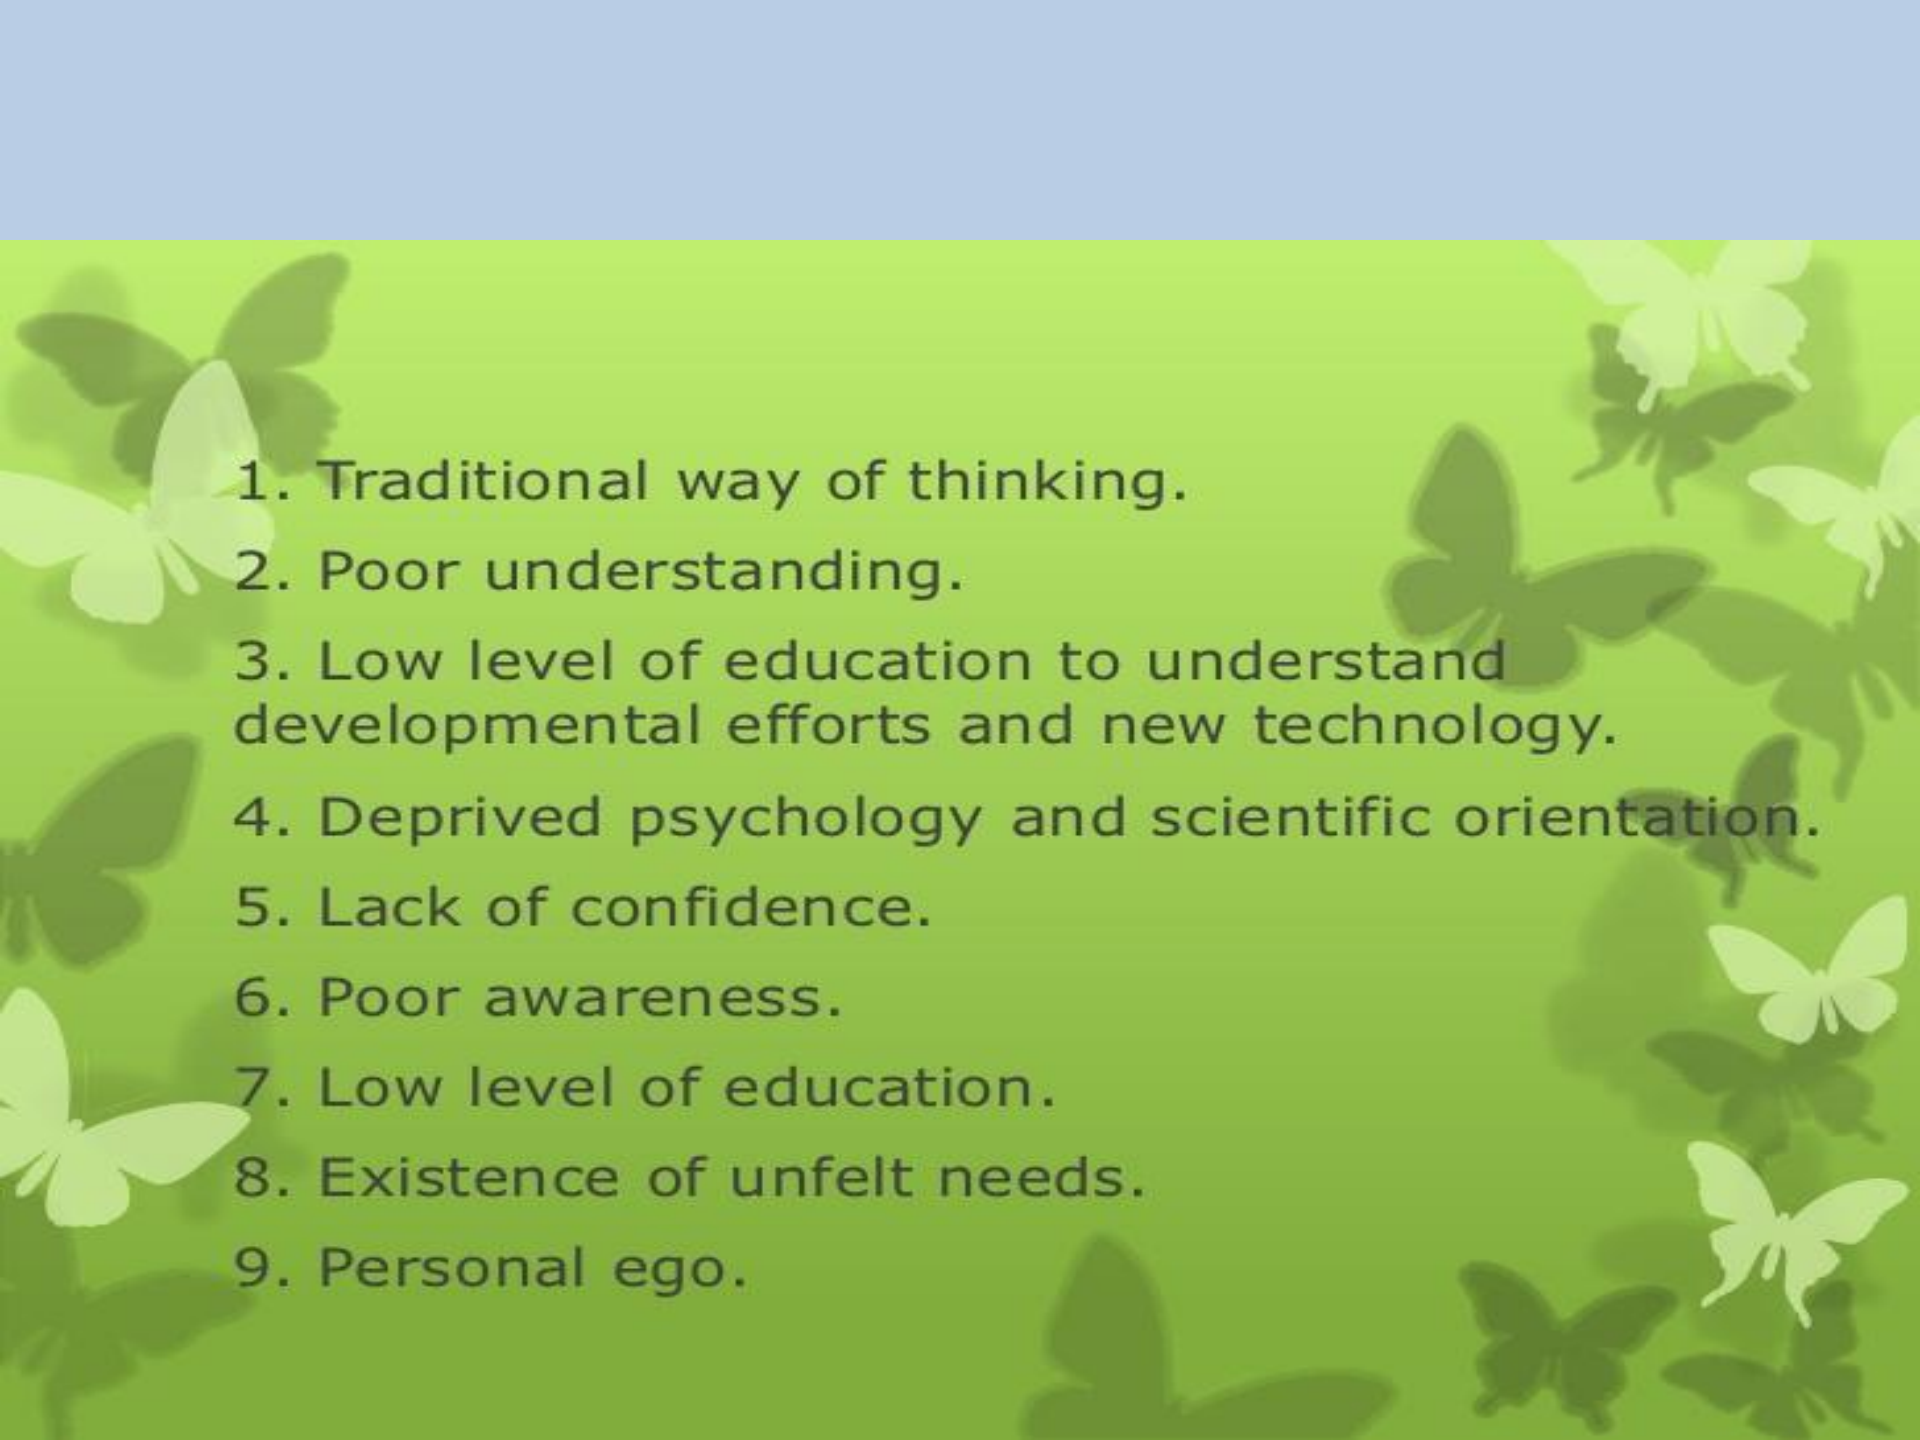

alamy stock photo

CSY34H
www.alamy.com

PEOPLE RELATED PROBLEMS

-
- The background features a light blue gradient at the top, transitioning into a vibrant green gradient. Scattered throughout the green area are numerous butterfly silhouettes in various shades of green and yellow, some appearing as solid shapes and others as faint outlines.
1. Traditional way of thinking.
 2. Poor understanding.
 3. Low level of education to understand developmental efforts and new technology.
 4. Deprived psychology and scientific orientation.
 5. Lack of confidence.
 6. Poor awareness.
 7. Low level of education.
 8. Existence of unfelt needs.
 9. Personal ego.

1-Situation of women in rural areas

- ❑ Despite the key role played by rural women in community life , but they still suffer from the constraints and difficulties make them suffer in their daily lives ,and that mainly due to the exclusion of economic , social and cultural development , they remain deprived of their rights in several areas such as education, health, entertainment etc...The suffering of rural women period commencing from childhood , where we find children in rural areas live childhood disadvantaged and marginalized . And in the rural areas, we find that some of hard work that is the prerogative of the men assigned to women may make them busy for study.

The background of the slide is a light blue, slightly blurred image of a classroom. In the foreground, there is a white tray containing several pieces of white chalk. In the background, a chalkboard is visible with some faint, white mathematical symbols and lines drawn on it, including what appears to be a circle and some curved lines. The overall tone is educational and academic.

2-The reasons for the illiteracy of girls in rural areas

School fees

Early Marriage

❑-The lack of basic equipment and facilities necessary in rural schools

The low standard of living of rural families where parents are forced to marginalize girls at the expense of the male , as the girl is considered an economic resource through involving them in many economic activities and agricultural and social

- The long distance from the children's homes to school.
- Failure to provide scholarships to all girls in villages.
- Ignorance the villagers of the importance of schooling for girls and their role in economic and social development.

Lack of infrastructure

- electricity
- hospitals
- schools
- Water
- Transportation

□ Find water

☐ Transportation

bad weather

