

Structure Ministry of I&B

Radio, TV, Films, Press and Print Publications, Advertising, Traditional modes of communications such as Dance and Drama objective

- helping people to have access to free flow of information
- involved in catering to the entertainment needs of various age groups and focusing attention of the people on issues of national integrity, environment protection, health care and family welfare, eradication of illiteracy and issues relating to women, children, minority and other disadvantage section of society.

4 wings

The Information wing

Joint secretary (policy and administration)
Handle policy matters of the Print and Press media and publicity requirements of the ministry.
General Administration

The Broadcasting Wing

Joint secretary (Broadcasting I)
Electronic media & the regulation of the content of private TV channels.
Programme matter of All India Radio & Doordarshan
Operation of Cable Tv and Community Radio
EMMC

Joint secretary (Broadcasting II)
Hardware development include upgrading of AIR & Doordarshan
Formulation of Policies and framing of rules and regulation for the broadcasting sectors include Public Sectors broadcasting & FM Radios

The Films wing

Joint secretary (Films)
Production & Distribution of documentaries
Development and promotion activities of film industry, including training, organisation of Film Festivals
Import & Export regulation

The integrated Finance wing

Additional Secretary & Financial Advisor (AS&FA)
Financial aspects of Ministry
Budget Plan and coordination
O&M